Headteacher's Blog – Week Commencing 16th July 2018

In my last Headteacher blog of the year, I would like to recognise the fantastic year we have had. The year has flown by and I am impressed, on a daily basis, of what a wonderful school community we have at CoDA. The successes and moments of pride are so vast that there is not enough space in my blog. This level of achievement only happens when staff, students and parents work together, so I would like to thank everybody for their hard work, commitment and 'We are CoDA' attitude!

I hope you all have a great, well deserved, summer break and I look forward to the new year with excitement.

In the final blog, I will recognise the students who were the highest positive scoring students on Class Charts in the last week and, also, for the whole academic year. For the students who have the highest total over the year, I will award 50 points and these points will be carried forward to next year.

Extra Rewards

I am sure you will join me in saying a huge well done to all of those students and I look forward to giving them their rewards.

In addition to that, I would like to say a big thank you and well done to all of the students who achieved 100% attendance all year. This is a phenomenal achievement and students will also receive an additional 100 Class Charts points from myself.
