

British Values

Democracy

Citizens have the power to elect their government through free and fair elections.

The Rule of Law

Everyone is subject to the same laws, regardless of their status.

Individual Liberty

The freedom to live life as one chooses, provided one does not break the law.

Mutual Respect

The importance of respecting the rights and beliefs of others.

Tolerance

Respect and acceptance of different religions and beliefs within a multicultural society.

